

3. Public Interest Directors. If you are seeking election as a public interest director, you must be able to demonstrate that you have more than four years experience representing consumer or community interests on banking services, credit needs, housing, or consumer financial protections.

If you meet this requirement, provide information on how you have represented such consumer or community interests for more than four years.

4. Conflicts of interest. Independent directors and their spouses may not serve as an officer of any Bank or as an officer, employee, or director of any member of, or any recipient of advances from, the Bank on whose board the independent director serves. You and your spouse will have to give up any conflicting position before you can become a Bank director.

For purposes of this conflict of interest provision, the terms:

“Member” and “Recipient of advances” include the institution itself and any subsidiary of the institution. If the institution is owned by a holding company, the terms include the holding company if 35 percent or more of the holding company’s assets, on a consolidated basis, are attributable to institutions that are members of, or recipients of advances from, the Bank on whose board the independent director serves. Thus, you may not serve as a director, employee, or officer of a holding company if one or more members of, or one or more recipients of advances from, your Bank constitute 35 percent or more of the holding company’s assets.

A. Please specify each position you and your spouse have in any member of, or recipient of advances from, the Bank on whose board you would serve.

B. Do you agree to give up positions that are deemed to be conflicting interests before becoming an independent director of that Bank? Yes No

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Banks are multi-billion dollar financial institutions, the principal business of which is to borrow funds in the capital markets and then provide secured loans to their members. Each Bank is required to have independent directors who possess knowledge or expertise in financial management, derivatives, auditing and accounting, risk management practices, project development, organizational management, or the law.

1. Leadership Experience. Bank directors should have experience in senior management or policy-making in one or more fields of business, government, education, or community/civic affairs, and should have a record of achievement in their chosen profession or field of business. This experience should provide directors with the ability to understand the business of the Bank, to act independently, and to ask Bank management appropriate questions about how they are conducting Bank business.

A. If you have ever served as the CEO, CFO, COO, or in a similar capacity for a business enterprise, or as a dean or senior faculty member at a prominent college or university, or as a senior official for a federal or state government or prominent nonprofit organization, please provide the details for those positions, including the dates of service and the positions held.

B. If you have other experience dealing with issues such as developing or implementing business strategies, overseeing regulatory compliance, corporate governance, or board operations, or have previously served on the board of a large business enterprise, please describe those experiences.

C. If you have other significant business or professional achievements that demonstrate your ability to lead an organization please describe them.

2. Business Knowledge. Bank directors must be financially literate, meaning they must be familiar with how financial statements and various financial ratios are used in managing a business enterprise, how basic accounting conventions apply to the Bank, and how internal controls are used to manage risk. They also must have some knowledge about one or more of the areas of the Bank's business, such as mortgage finance, capital markets transactions, accounting/modeling practices, affordable housing, community and economic development, and legal and regulatory compliance.

A. Do you know how to read and understand a financial statement, and do you understand how financial ratios and other indices are used for evaluating the performance of a business enterprise? Yes No

If you answered Yes, please describe the setting in which you gained that knowledge.

B. Do you have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, including internal controls and risk management? Yes No

If you answered Yes, please describe the setting in which you acquired that knowledge.

C. Do you have experience with financial accounting and auditing, particularly with a publicly traded company? Yes No

If you answered Yes, please describe that experience.
